

WINNER

AGENCY OF THE YEAR

FANVIEW MEDIA

Fanview Media is an innovation agency working across broadcast, digital and technology in sports and eSports, servicing major broadcasters, brands, leagues and federations.

The agency identifies new technologies and transforms them into eye-catching, innovative and commercially-viable solutions.

Here's what the judges said:

This was a very impressive entry which was strong on technical innovation. They have set themselves apart from the competition by striving for "world first" activation and supported their entry with a good range of examples which showed their breadth and scalability as an organisation.
